W. E. WILLIAMS, P. M.

A large supply of fresh turnip seed just received at Mr. Ezekiel's. See his card.

Our neighbor the "News" finding that no one will praise it for sharpness, praises itself.

The Carolina Base Ball Club of Charleston have challenged the Oranges. This is a compliment if not a victory.

The exercises of Mr. Melcham's school will take place this evening at the Elliott Hall. The public may expect a pleasant treat.

CALL at T. B. Boyd's for anything you wish in the boot, shoe, or grocery line, and you will be suited as well in prices as in quality.

Dr. T. B. Legare returned from Clarksville Tenn., on Tuesday night last. The Doctor will resume his profession in Orangeburg in a short time.

WE regret to announce the bereavement sustained by Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Glover in the death of their infant child, which occurred on Saturday morning last.

The "Swamp Angels" say, "though thou shouldst flee the Styx, I'll follow after" and on this afternoon are going to peel off for or at the Oranges. Bravo for such stuff they'll win or try for it.

The delegates of the taxpayer's Convention are requested to meet on Saturday the 27th instant, at Orangeburg C. H., to consider business of the convention. A full attendance is desired.

WE notice that Mr. T. C. Andrews with the assistance of J. F. Meyers Esq. has taken charge of the Orangeburg News, and says that the political course of that paper will be but little changed.

GOLDSMITH's cotton tie is a complete simple, and secure fastening. See the bale of cotton on exhibition at Mr. Ezekiel's. This is an invention of a young Charlestonian, and will surely take the place of many other ties.

It is a prevailing rumor that Mr. R. Colman lately of our County was killed in an encounter with some party in Georgia. Mr. Colman had fired at his opponent with a pistol, and the other seized a gun with which he killed his assailant.

How long will our taxpayers wait before they will organize; Remember the enemy are snickering at your supineness, and are getting ready for another drag of their party net. It is a big haul they make always; Love of country makes them love the taxpayer's money.

On Saturday a meeting will be held to fix the rate of tax for school purposes for Orangeburg; and as this is no mean part of the general tax it is important that our citizens should turn out, attend the meeting, and see that no extraordinary tax is set. Bear this in mind, Saturday next. It may save you more grumbling than a half hour's indifference can repay.

THE PIC NIC.—"Victor" was as well pleased there as we were; and we second his motion when he asks "when will another picnic take place provided we are there." But as to the man who drank NINE cups of coffee he had better say very little on that subject. We know he is down on liquor, but coffee; well may we always have as much and as good another time.

Mr. Ezekiel with military precision and address says "Ladies Attention." He is agent for jars, and is prepared to furnish the best. Fortunately these are fruit jars, and will last forever with a fragrant sweetness of concentrated preservation. Other "jars" he repudiates, his are the best. We'll tell about the conserves next as he has hinted, "I have something sweet to give you."

CAPTAIN David Houser while on a visit to Orangeburg on Friday last was suddenly taken dangerously ill; He was carried to the residence of Mr. W. A. Scoville, and remained there in a most critical state for several hours. We are gratified to state however that the Captain rallied sufficiently to go home on Sunday.

THE opposite of "lottery swindles" is the "metal pen, pencil and paper sales" of Mr. Womack who made a visit to our town. For the sum of 25 cents the buyer gets a half dozen excellent gilded pens, a half dozen lead pencils of good quality, and a neat pen case. Mr. Womack offers also at a low price excellent note paper. This is no Yankee swindle, but a legitimate sale of useful articles. In patronizing Mr. Womack our citizens aid one who when a boy lost the use of an arm in the memorable battles of General Pinnigan in Florida, beside this, they get value received.

WANTED TO KNOW: How many $350 Rosewood pianos, and handsome melodeons have been received by the persons who were so fortunate as to draw them through Northern lottery houses. Wanted to know if the money sent on to prepay the freight has ever been heard from since. It is surprising that people who grumble about hard times should be so green as to take for gospel the representations of these Yankee swindlers, and notice the hundreds of printed slips that go through the mail every day. Mr. A— gets a letter from Mess. Sharp & Co., saying their grand lottery draws on the—day of June, tickets 25cts, sure to draw: Mr. A— thinks he'll try a quarter; why not; might as well have a piano as not, and induces his neighbors to try their luck; A week rolls by and Mr. A—'s ticket draws. "New York Ticket—1874, my dear Mr. A— your ticket drew a double bassed, silver piped, vox humanum flute keyed organ, please send $25.00 to pay boxing, cartage and freight respectfully,

SHARP & Co."

Gracious, shouts Mr. A— I'll send on the small amount. Mr. A— does not see that the freight on a piano, melodeon or an organ can be paid at Orangeburg as well as in New York, and Mr. A— does not seem to be grateful enough in only sending the money to pay the freight, he ought to be forever under obligations to the generous New Yorker who gives away such trifles only for the freight. In a word our people are making themselves ridiculous by noticing the communications of a set of thieving rascals, and we warn them that every such lottery scheme is a fraud.
